Virtual Event

9.00am Registration/Log in, 9.30am Welcome and 4.30pm, Close (ALL DAYS)

The ADI-R is a comprehensive developmental history interview, and is considered to be a gold-standard assessment for autism. This course will cover the administration and coding of the ADI-R and its use in clinical contexts.

This course aims to provide delegates with:

- Administration of the ADI-R
- Coding of the ADI-R
- Completion & Interpretation of the ADI-R algorithm
- Understanding use of the ADI-R in clinical contexts

About our speaker:

Emma is an international trainer and supervisor in the Autism Diagnostic Observation Schedule–Second Edition (ADOS-2) and the Autism Diagnostic Interview- Revised (ADI-R), and is a director of Compass Psychology Services Ltd. She was previously based at the Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology & Neuroscience (King's College London), the Maudsley Autism & ADHD Assessment Service, the National Autism Unit (Bethlem Royal Hospital) and the Anna Freud National Centre for Children & Families. For over 15 years, Emma's work in research, clinical and teaching contexts has focused on increasing understanding of autism and supporting psychological well-being for autistic individuals and their families.

Emma is a qualified integrative counsellor and member of The British Association of Counselling & Psychotherapy (BACP) and works therapeutically with both adults and children. Emma is a member of the UK ADHD Partnership with a particular interest in ADHD and co-occurring conditions. In addition to autism and ADHD, she specialises in working with personality disorders and forensic populations and has been involved completing ADOS-2 & ADI-R assessments in high profile medicolegal cases. Emma runs workshops about autism and ADHD, and has contributed to a number of research publications. Emma is passionate about international development and collaboration and has worked with organisations across the world.
