

Crimes against Disabled People - from a CPS Perspective

Victims and witness with disabilities with the Criminal Justice System including disability hate crime.

Wednesday 12 May 2021

The session will cover legal competence of witnesses, as well as some of the offences against people who have disabilities who lack capacity. Measures which can be put in place to assist the witness to give their evidence will be covered. There are also specific criminal offences against people with disabilities which will be explored along with disability hate crime.

After attending this course delegates will have improved understanding of:

- Legal competence to give evidence and measures which the CJS can provide to maximise the quality of evidence
- Offence against people with disabilities including those without capacity
- Disability hate crime

About our speaker:

Yvette Levy is a Senior Crown Prosecutor and the Hate Crime lead for Yorkshire and Humberside CPS. Yvette has involved with prosecuting many hate crimes over the years and has a particular interest in the handling of victims and witnesses with disabilities within the CJS.
