The Space Between: Disconnection & Connection

Saturday 6th November 2021

Virtual Event via Zoom

9am Registration, 9.30am Welcome and 5pm, Close

A warm and inclusive online event, full of fun and the spirit of OK-ness of TA. We are starting the day with an opening keynote, followed by a choice of morning and afternoon workshops, and to round it all off, a closing plenary. We look forward to welcoming you to a lively and highly engaging programme.

This years' theme explores the transitional space where something has been left behind, but has not yet fully become something new. Presenters will be sharing their experiences of this disconnection and connection in all its forms; in therapeutic relationships, supervision, personal development and more.

After attending this event, delegates will be able to:

- Over 5 hours of CPD suitable for BACP & CTA requirements
- Reflect on the transitional space in their practice
- Apply learning from workshops

Course Fees:

£25.00

On-line learning materials are included.
