

Autism Training Day for Psychiatrists

Monday 26 October 2020

Virtual Event via Zoom

9.45am Registration, 10.00am Welcome and 4.00pm, Close

The day will be focussed on practical information to help psychiatrists make best use of existing resources. It will cover topics including how to avoid diagnostic overshadowing, types of reasonable adjustments which can be applied in practice, addressing myths about Autism and what non-specialist psychiatrists need to know about things like Care and Treatment reviews. It will follow a strengths, needs and aspirations approach to understanding traits and sensitivities and how to take these into account in helping Autistic people with mental health conditions which need input from mental health services including psychiatrists. The core national components are delivered by Ian Davidson RCPsych Autism Champion, Rachel Moody Expert by Experience, Clair Haydon Consultant OT.

After attending this course delegates will be able to:

- Be fully up to date with local and national autism policy development
- Apply reasonable adjustments to their own practise to improve care of autistic patients
- Adopt a strengths, needs and aspirations approach to understand traits and sensitivities and know how to take these into account in helping autistic people with mental health conditions

About our Speakers

Ian Davidson is a Consultant Psychiatrist with Cheshire and Wirral Partnership NHS Foundation Trust, Autism Champion at the Royal College of Psychiatrists, First Tier Tribunal Mental Health Medical Member, National Clinical lead GIRFT crisis/acute MH

Rachel Moody is an expert by experience, who is Autistic and has a mental health condition. She is on a number of policy and review groups about Autism at national level in England and has presented and delivered training to multiple audiences

Clair Haydon is a Consultant Occupational Therapist Neurodevelopmental services at Cheshire and Wirral Partnership NHS Foundation Trust, co-lead for North West England Operational Development Network for Autism, national clinical adviser to NHSE/I on MH acute out of area and rehabilitation programmes.
