

Solution Focused Conversation

Catching people doing something right

Thursday 12 March 2020

Holiday Inn Express, Armouries Drive, Leeds, LS10 1LE
9am Registration, 9.30am Welcome and 4.30pm, Close

This workshop is an introduction to what the Solution Focused Model is, what it is not, and how delegates can use it in their work. Delegates will be taken through the structure of a session, visual resources and tools devised by the speaker and will take part in experiential exercises, throughout the workshop. No Role Plays are used – all exercises are real and private.

After attending this course delegates will be able to:

- Understand the principles of the model
- Understand the language of the model
- Use the model appropriately

About our speaker:

Eileen Murphy heads a group of Solution Focused Practitioners, based in London, working nationally with 25 years experience of working with service-users of Social Services, Mental Health, Education and Criminal Justice and providing training to staff across those services. Eileen developed a front-line Solution Focused service in 1993 that has been replicated by 24 local authorities across the UK some of whom have attracted Social Care Awards and Nominations for their work in helping individuals towards recovery and rehabilitation.
