Nursing: Out of the Noughties
Mental health and learning disability nursing in the next ten years

9.00am  Registration with poster presentations
9.30am  Welcome and Introduction
        Michele Moran, Chief Nurse, Leeds Partnerships NHS Foundation Trust
9.40am  Keynote Presentation: Overview of the Conference Themes
        Professor Dawn Freshwater, Head of the School of Healthcare, University of Leeds
10.10am Parallel session A: workshops
        A1  Service Users: Still Unsung Innovators of Mental Health Services
            Alan Crump, Case Manager; and Beverley Thornton, Recovery and Social Inclusion Worker, Leeds Partnerships NHS Foundation Trust
        A2  Autistic Spectrum Disorder: Implications for Nursing Practice in the Next Decade
            Frances Needham, Community Outreach Nurse, Leeds Partnerships NHS Foundation Trust
        A3  Introducing a Care Pathway: Do’s and Don’ts
            Jayne Brier, Acting CTM; Angela Farago, Occupational Therapist; and Chris Brook, Staff Nurse, Leeds Partnerships NHS Foundation Trust
        A4  Going Graduate – Developing an Innovative BSc (Hons) That Promotes Joint Working and Specialist Skills within Learning Disability and Mental Health Nursing
            Joanne Lay, Nursing Branch Lead; Julia Turner, Programme Manager BSc Nursing; Stacey Atkinson, Programme Manager Adv Dip Nursing; and Helen Atherton, Nurse Lecturer, University of Leeds
        A5  Reducing Self Harm Rates in an Acute Inpatient Female Ward
            Lyn Belsham, Acting CTM; and Shona McIlrae, Consultant Psychiatrist, Leeds Partnerships NHS Foundation Trust
11.20am ~ Morning coffee ~ with poster viewing
11.40am Conference Theme: Promoting Safety in Practice
        Dr Linda Patterson, Non Executive Director, National Patient Safety Agency
12.20pm Conference Theme: Accountability in Practice
        Ian Hulatt, Adviser in Mental Health, Royal College of Nursing
1.00pm ~ Lunch ~ with poster viewing
1.45pm Parallel session B: repeat of Session A workshops
2.55pm ~ Afternoon tea ~ with poster viewing
3.25pm Conference Theme: Effectiveness and Innovation
        Heather Burns, Valuing People Team Health Lead, Yorkshire and Humber Improvement Partnership
4.05pm Summary
        Chris Butler, Chief Executive, Leeds Partnerships NHS Foundation Trust
4.15pm Close

This conference is accredited by the Royal College of Nursing Accreditation Unit
Reference: 4640 – 6 study hours