Workshop

Psychosis in the Perinatal Period

Understanding the risk and how to provide the best care for women before, during and after pregnancy.

Thursday 16 January 2020

The Queens Hotel, City Square, Leeds, LS1 1PJ

9am Registration, 9.30am Welcome and 4.30pm, Close

The workshop will describe the risks for this group of women in the perinatal period including the risk of postpartum psychosis and child safeguarding concerns. Complex cases will be used to discuss prevention, care and treatment with an emphasis on multi-agency working with women and their families.

After attending this course delegates will be able to...

- Identify women at high risk of postpartum psychosis
- Understand how to reduce the risks for women with a current or previous diagnosis of Bipolar Disorder, Schizophrenia or other psychotic illness and their children

About our speaker:

Dr Lucinda Green has been a Consultant Perinatal Psychiatrist since 2002. She developed and led an innovative perinatal mental health service integrated with the maternity service at St. Thomas' Hospital (South London & Maudsley NHS Foundation Trust). From 2016 she was Perinatal Clinical Lead for West London NHS Trust's perinatal mental health service. In 2018 she established a private perinatal psychiatry practice at the Portland Hospital and other locations in London.

For the Pan London Perinatal Mental Health Network Dr Green has chaired both the South London and North West London Clinical Networks, co-authored the London Perinatal Mental Health Care Pathway and led the development of the perinatal mental health pre-birth planning toolkit. She was a member of the British Association for Psychopharmacology's consensus guidelines development group for the use of psychotropic medication preconception, in pregnancy and postpartum. She was the lead for the RCPsych series of perinatal mental health information leaflets, developed in partnership with other experts, including women with lived experience of perinatal mental illness.

Dr Green has many years' experience of designing and delivering perinatal mental health training for a range of professionals. She was a mentor for the RCPsych Perinatal Building Capacity, Psychiatry Leadership in Perinatal Mental Health Services project. She is a visiting lecturer in perinatal mental health for the Tavistock and Portman NHS Foundation Trust.
